

ARI Celebrates 65th Anniversary

In July we will be celebrating our 65th Anniversary. Aid for Retarded Children, Inc. was founded in 1952 and opened a nursery school with five children in 1958. Since then, ARI of CT, Inc., has grown into an agency serving nearly 150 adults living, working, having fun and learning to be as independent as possible in our community. Our founding families, led by the Martin and the Lotstein families, set out to develop educational options for their children. As the children grew, so did ARI! Of course, these two families needed some help, and they received a great deal of community support. Others who were very instrumental in the early days included Frank White, the Marks and Kaminsky families and Christel and Anthony Truglia. We are grateful for their vision and their legacy. We remember them for the leadership they provided to begin and to grow ARI.

ARI would not be where it is today if it wasn't for the incredible dedication of the many ladies who served on the Women's Auxiliary. The Auxiliary was comprised of mothers of ARI consumers and other women in the community. The group succeeded as strong advocates for legislation to improve the lives of people with disabilities and as effective fundraisers. They opened the ARI Thrift Shop in 1966 and held countless fundraising events including the annual fashion show. This group of trailblazers worked together for over 40 years, was instrumental in the opening of the Vocational Training Center, and raised several hundreds of thousands of dollars. Many of their members are still active at ARI and their children continue to benefit from our services. We are indebted to them for their support.

We invite you to join us in celebrating our 65 years in the community as we host some special events to celebrate this milestone. Join us to recognize our consumers, their families and the community members who have supported us and enabled us to continue our mission of enriching the lives of people with developmental disabilities and their families.

Enriching the lives of people with disabilities and their families by enabling them to achieve their fullest potential at home, at work and in the community.

Spring, my favorite season, has finally arrived! There is nothing like the warmth of the sun inviting you to spend more time outside, the birds waking you up with their songs, and watching happy animals out and about.

This was a very long, busy winter at ARI. As always, the challenges continue as we try to stay on top of the ever-changing state and federal agendas that impact our funding. Despite the concerns that lie ahead, and the budgetary constraints we face, we continue to seek ways to improve the quality of our programs and the quality of life for the people we serve.

There have been many positive initiatives that have taken place over the last several months. We have restructured our day program and introduced new activities, replaced a third of our vehicles thanks to generous donors, completed countless repairs in our homes, and raised awareness and funds to ensure that we can continue to enrich the lives of the people we support.

Our FY 2016 audit is complete and the report shows that we increased our revenue and decreased our expenses throughout the year resulting in a $150,000 positive change in our operations. Unfortunately, we still ended the year with a deficit, but it is significantly lower than the last several years. The first eight months of the current fiscal year show even better results and I am pleased to report that we continue to make significant progress toward stabilizing the financial health of our organization. These results are only made possible by the continued diligence of our staff to reduce expenses, the generosity of individual donors, and the thoughtful planning of a dear friend of ARI who left a significant bequest to our organization.

While we have made great improvements, we have much work to do to stabilize our organization and ensure we have a solid foundation for growth. I look forward to sharing more details with you at our annual State of the Agency meeting on May 11. See inside for further details. PLEASE make time in your schedule to attend this very important meeting. All are welcome!

We could never do all that we do without our team of dedicated volunteers. There are many opportunities to get involved, with a wide range of time commitments. Please include ARI in your schedule. Whether you can volunteer at an event once or twice a year, or make a weekly time commitment to lead an activity, we need you! Please contact Gerard Gasparino to find a way you can get involved. I promise you will enrich your own life even more than you enrich the lives of the people we support. I continue to believe that it takes a village to raise a family. With your help, our village of friends, donors and supporters will ensure that our family lives on for years to come. Thank you for being an essential part of our village!

With sincere appreciation,
Susanne D. Kuligowski

Pre-Vocational Services to Close

In 2014, the federal Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services issued new requirements under the Home and Community Based Settings Rule. The intent of this rule is to provide opportunities for Medicaid beneficiaries to receive services in their own home or community rather than institutions or other isolated settings. The state of Connecticut has been working since this ruling was issued, to develop plans to ensure compliance by March of 2019. For ARI, this means we have to close our pre-vocational services – which has been known in the past as “sheltered employment.”

As DDS took immediate action to close admissions to sheltered work programs when the ruling was issued, ARI has had a declining number of participants in the program over the past few years. ARI currently has eight individuals in what is now known as the pre-vocational services program. We have been working with their case managers to plan for the next steps for these individuals. Some will be going on to more independent work programs while others will be moving to our day service options program to participate in various activities and community volunteer services as they near their retirement years. In anticipation of the closing of this program, ARI has not taken any new contract work for over a year. This group continues to complete projects for vendors we have been working with for many years, and to process mailings for ARI. We anticipate this work continuing as we continue the transition process for our consumers.

As always, we will put the needs and interests of our consumers at the center of their transition and we will work to shift them into the programs and services that are best suited for them.

IN MEMORIAM – ROBERT MURPHY

September 26, 1944 – April 3, 2017. Robert Murphy, a Connecticut Yankee, was a recent resident of The Villa, Stamford, when he passed away from heart disease. His “ma,” a long-time guardian, was with him when he died. For many years he was a consumer of services at ARI of CT. Robert lived independently before joining Palermo House in Stamford. He participated in many activities and held various jobs as part of the ARI “workshop.” Over the years, Robert participated in recreational activities, and devoted many hours to his love of music. He had a wonderful ability to recall staff and colleagues’ family names, former professions and latest news. He spoke to everyone and turned many anxious faces to smiling ones with his positive personality. Robert made friends wherever he went and will be sorely missed.

Day Service Options

The Day Service Options (DSO) program continues to meet the needs of each individual by offering a multitude of activities. Over the last few months we have added activities for all of the consumers based on their interests. The new program options include cooking groups, work readiness groups, sign language classes, Zumba/dance groups, field trips to museums (including the Housatonic Art Museum), Wii activities (to improve motor skills) and much more. Consumers change groups throughout the day based on their individualized schedules. On Tuesdays and Thursdays, groups have access to the gym at the Boys and Girls Club (Yerwood Center) where they play basketball, soccer and games. The DSO program continues to study and foster diversity with small group projects. In February, groups prepared small presentations on African Americans who've made a difference in our history, such as Maya Angelou, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., and Dr. Joyce Yerwood.

In January, the First Congregational Church donated a refrigerator which has allowed us to open the ARI Snack Bar. Consumers are in charge of maintaining inventory and selling products, with staff assistance. The snack bar is open for 45 minutes at 10:00 a.m. and noon, allowing staff and consumers the opportunity to purchase snacks and coffee.

Residential Services

Last December, Tally Ho residence received a two-year license from DDS. Both the Palermo and Truglia residences will be inspected in the spring. A two-year license is the maximum that you can receive.

• • •

ARI held a Decorating Contest during the holiday season. Truglia won for best decorated Christmas tree and all the homes outdid themselves over Christmas, Hanukah and Kwanzaa.

• • •

Sunrise Cottage in Ridgefield hosted a Super Bowl party for over 20 consumers and staff. All enjoyed the big game, with great food and comradery.

The Sunshine Committee

The Sunshine Committee, formed in the late fall, is made up of managers and support staff. The mission of the committee is to increase morale throughout the agency and inspire us to work and communicate better. The committee will be sending monthly birthday wishes to staff and create events that will bring staff together. The committee will reach out to employees to ask input on ways to increase working relationships throughout the agency.

How Are We Doing?

ARI needs your feedback! We will be conducting surveys in the upcoming months to gauge how we are doing and to make sure we are focusing on the areas our key stakeholders believe to be most important. Surveys will be completed with our consumers in our day and residential programs and sent to family members and community members. We will rely on the results of these surveys to plan for our future. When you receive your survey, please complete and return it promptly.
